

Arc Terminals LP Announces Acquisition of Two Terminals in Mobile, Alabama

The Woodlands, TX – May 28, 2010 – Arc Terminals LP announced today that it has expanded its presence into the Gulf Coast by completing the acquisition of two terminals from Dunhill Terminals.

The two terminals, located in the port of Chickasaw and on Blakely Island in Alabama, have a combined storage capacity of 1.5 million barrels of storage with marine, rail and truck access. Arc is an independent terminal company that provides third-party customers storage and delivery services for petroleum and other liquid products and as such will pursue third parties to lease the available storage space at these terminals. With the acquisition of the Chickasaw and Blakely Terminals, Arc Terminals now has ten terminals located in eight states and a combined storage capacity of 3.6 million barrels.

Arc Terminals funded the transaction through a capital investment from Lightfoot Capital Partners, LP.
