

Arc Terminals LP Announces Acquisition of a 50% interest in the Spartanburg Terminal

New York, NY – October 15, 2007 – Arc Terminals LP announced today that it has completed the acquisition of a 50% ownership interest in a refined petroleum products terminal located in Spartanburg, South Carolina from an affiliate of Center Oil Company, a private energy company based in St. Louis, Missouri. With the Spartanburg Terminal acquisition, Arc Terminals now has eight terminals located in six states, with a combined tank capacity of 1.6 million barrels.

Arc Terminals funded the transaction through an equity investment by the owner of its general partner, Lightfoot Capital Partners, LP. CITGO Petroleum Corporation owns the other 50% interest in the Spartanburg Terminal and has elected to maintain its existing ownership.
